

What topics will we be studying?

Throughout this year we will be looking at a variety of different events, and people throughout history. Our focus will take us to a variety of period throughout Europe that has since impacted the Modern World. We will begin with a focus on the Dark Ages, in particular looking at the perspectives of and on Medieval Women and the Crusaders. The majority of our year will focus on the French Revolution, and the impacts and significance that it had on New Zealand and the rest of the world.

What skills will I need?

- >>Interpretation & judgement of evidence<<
- >>Evaluation of key historical ideas & relationships<<
- >>Develop independent thinking<<
- >>Global citizen<<
- >>Synthesises & communicate the above<<